Introduction: (21st Sunday - Year 'C')

Jesus said, 'People will come from north and south, from east and west, and take their places in the Kingdom.' We have come here from many different directions. But all of these directions have served to bring us to this house of God. We give thanks to God for that, and ask that we may be found worthy of God's kingdom.

Today's Readings:

First Reading: (Isaiah 66: 18-21)

Gentiles will be converted and receive a share in Israel's blessings.

Response to Psalm: GO INTO ALL THE WORLD AND PROCLAIM THE GOOD NEWS.

Second Reading: (Letter to the Hebrews 12: 5-7, 11-13)

As a father shows his concern for his son by training him in discipline, so God trains his children through suffering.

Gospel: (Luke 13: 22-30)

The Kingdom of God is offered, not just to the Jews, but to people from the four corners of the world.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION

Jesus, my God, You are now in me and I in You.

Each of us has eaten at your table.

May we always be close to You and to each other, as children of one family. We praise You, we adore You,
we thank You for coming to us. Amen.
